

Project Update: Harris Holmes Streetscape Improvement Project

City of Atlanta
Department of Public Works

Richard Mendoza, Commissioner

August 2014

Project: Harris Holmes Streetscape Improvement Project

Project ID#: 0007123 CD: 4 NPU: T Contractor: Cotangent Technical Services, LLC

Description: The Harris Holmes Streetscape Improvement Project will include overall pedestrian access improvements along Joseph Lowery Boulevard, from north of I-20 to Sells Street. Improvements will include: landscaping; pedestrian street lighting; sidewalk and crosswalk improvements. Improvements will also include brick paver accents and drainage along both sides of Joseph E Lowery Boulevard from I-20 to Cunningham Place and on the east side to Sells Avenue.

Phase: Construction

Schedule Status: On schedule

Construction Start Date: November 2013

Funding Sources: Federal CMAQ & STP (Congestion Mitigation and Air Quality & Surface Transportation Program) & Local City of Atlanta Funding

Project Status:

- This project is substantially completed.
- DPW is awaiting the installation of the crosswalk pavers to finalize and accept this project from the contractor.

The Department of Public Works, in an ongoing effort to ensure that the community remains aware of progress being made with this project, will continue to keep the community informed through regular updates.

City of Atlanta Department of Public Works
55 Trinity Avenue, SE Atlanta, GA 30303
ATTN: Michael Frierson, Public Information Manager
Email: publicworks@atlantaga.gov / Phone: (404) 330-6333